Iconic Belgian chocolate

Limar has been a household name within the national and international chocolate community for over 40 years. As a family business we believe in a personal approach. Furthermore we commit to using natural products and premium ingredients.

How did we turn this philosophy into a success story? By approaching each challenge as a team and pushing boundaries within our production process with state of the art production lines, innovating concepts and creative recipes.

Proudly we present our Belgian chocolates, made from natural ingredients, a fair share of personality and respect for the artisan craft of chocolate creation.
